

Indiana Finance Company / Indiana Finance Financial Corp.

The protection of your nonpublic personal information is important to our Company. It is common for companies like ours to share your nonpublic personal information with third parties. Because we recognize that keeping your nonpublic personal information private is important to you, we would like to take this opportunity to explain our Privacy Policy.

About our Privacy Policy

Our Privacy Policy applies to those persons who obtain financial products or services from us to be used for personal, family or household purposes. Our goal is to respond to your inquiries, to provide better customer service, and to provide products and services you have requested from us. This Privacy Policy explains:

- The types of information we may collect about you;
- The type of information we may disclose to third parties; and
- How we protect the nonpublic personal information we collect about you.

The types of information we may collect about you

We may collect nonpublic personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information we received from you on applications or other forms, such as your name, address, telephone numbers, e-mail addresses, birth date, social security number, and driver's license information;
- Information about your transactions with us or others, such as your account balances and payment histories credit score and credit history; and
- Representations made by you to us, such as your employment history, sources of income, and your relationships with other persons or entities that you have listed as references.

The types of information we may disclose to third parties

We do not disclose, nor do we reserve the right to disclose, any nonpublic personal information about our current or former customers to anyone, except as permitted by law.

How we protect your nonpublic personal information

We take our responsibility to protect your nonpublic personal information seriously. Whenever we collect information about you, we restrict access to your nonpublic information to those employees and third parties who need the information to provide you with the information, products and services you have requested. We explain the importance of protecting your nonpublic personal information to our employees and take appropriate measures to enforce employee responsibilities regarding our Privacy Policy. We also maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to the confidentiality and security of the information we collect. We require any third party who receives information about you from us to agree to keep that information confidential and to use the information in accordance with the law.

We appreciate your business and the opportunity to assist you in understanding our Privacy Policy. We hope that you have found this information to be useful and appreciate the opportunity to continue to serve you in the future. If you have any questions regarding our Privacy Policy, you may contact us by mailing your inquiry to 9601 S. Innovation Drive, Daleville, IN 47334